Dedication

We, the Seniors of 1956, fondly dedicate this yearbook to Miss Marie Welshon.

Throughout our school years, in her gracious, soft-spoken manner she has served us untiringly and willingly by aiding us with reportorial and vocational material.

Thus we wish to express our gratitude and to pay tribute to her for her assistance and encouragement and for her capability as librarian to us and to the community.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Beverly Steele and Helen Fetters who passed away during our high school years.

Beverly will always be remembered for her sweet smile and Helen for her wonderful sense of humor.

PHOTOGENIC SENIORS

WILLIAM BAUER

DIANA COUNTERMAN

It should be noted that Mr. George Hoxie, F.P.S.A. Master Photographer, of Oxford, Ohio, was an impartial and unbiased judge since he was not acquainted with any of the persons whose pictures were submitted to him.

In all fairness to everyone concerned it was necessary that the judging be done by photographs. All seniors were eligible.

Due to lack of time the two pictures were selected in Columbus and then forwarded straight to the publisher. Therefore, the judge's choices will be a surprise to everyone, including the editor, the staff, and the winners.

The School

History Of The Senior Class

The class of 1956 started its journey through C.H.S. in 1950 as lowly Seventh Graders. Our officers were Ted Sawyer, President; Bob Cain, Vice-President; and Catherine Krichbaum, Secretary-Treasurer. We thrilled to our first big event--a class party. Advisors were Mrs. Varga and Mr. Flynn.

We then went on to the Eighth Grade where we elected Bob Cain, President; Bill Bauer, Vice-President; and Suzanne Enoch, Secretary-Treasurer. This ended two glorious years in Junior High School. Mr. Flynn and Mr. Hutson were our advisors.

In our first year in high school we elected Larry Palmer, President; Sally Exenkamper, Vice-President; Bob Ruhe, Secretary; and Bob Cain, Treasurer. Big business made its appearance in our career when we sold Bulldog emblems. We lost one of our beloved class-mates when Beverly Steele passed away. Advisors were Miss O'Leary and Mr. Flynn.

As Sophomores we found that we still had a lot to learn; we received much experience from conducting Sock Hops, the Sophomore Hop, and by waging a magazine drive with Sandra Clutter and Ted Sawyer as Captains. The teachers who helped us this year were Miss Griebling and Mr. Flynn. Our officers were Larry Palmer, President; Ruth Hensley, Vice-President; Catherine Krichbaum, Secretary; and Peggy Linn, Treasurer.

The Junior year meant one important project--the Reception. For the big job the class chose Larry Palmer, President; Ted Sawyer, Vice-President; Sandra Clutter, Secretary; and Ruth Hensley, Treasurer. Advisors were Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Palmer, Mr. Flynn, and Mr. Hutson. The class was deeply saddened by the passing away of another of our class-mates, Helen Fetters.

For its last year the class selected Bill Horning President. He is assisted by Catherine Krichbaum, Vice-President; Norma Long, Secretary; and Emogene Croft, Treasurer. Miss Miller and Mr. Hutson are our advisors. For the first time in several years this class has undertaken two immense projects--publishing an annual and taking a class trip.

Class Song

TO THE TUNE OF MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

January to December, we'll have school years to remember.
The day we started freshman term,
The Sophomore Hop the class did yearn,
We will have our school years to remember.
The prom was planned the junior year,
As seniors we did soon appear,
We will have our school years to remember.
Though freshmen turn to seniors and the school days disappear,
The laughter we were glad to share will echo through the years.
When other nights and other days, may find us gone our separate ways,
We will have our school years to remember.

Dear Jackie and Peggy,

We thought you might like to know what happened to some of the members of our class of "56". EMOGENE CROFT owns a bakery, "The Sweet Shop", where MASON CHRISTNER and BETTY JEAN NORWOOD are employed. DONNA KLEIN owns a candy shop, the local hang-out. CHARLES FRENCH, owner of the Marathon, and ADRIAN MARSHALL, owner of the Shell, are competitors in the gasoline business.

The shattered romance of SHIRLEY SAXTON brought her to the office of Dr. SANDRA CLUTTER, local psychologist. GEORGE HOFFMAN has a sign on his door reading, "Help for the shy ones". CAROL POTH molds teeth for Dr. Laishley, and VERNON DUFFNER is one of the local taxi drivers for the Yellow Cab service. LEONARD POLLOCK gives jitterbug lessons at the Water-front for those who love to rock and roll.

At C.H.S. the new faculty members are FRACES GRIFENSTINE, physical education; RUTH HORNING, home economics; BOB ROBERTS, drivers's training; DIANA COUNTERMAN, bookkeeping; and SALLY EXENKAMPER, kindergarden.

Do you still subscribe to the Advocate? It has been improved greatly since SANDRA FISHER is editor, with BARBARA EXENKAMPER'S society page and RICHARD THOMAS'S sports page.

RONALD CHARLTON is now married and is supporting twins. WARNER HAAG could not come to the reunion because he got stuck in a drain pipe while trying to fix it. TOM CLUTTER is head coach at Leesville. RUTH HENSLEY is married to a Lutheran preacher--we never expected that. LEONARD BAUER, HARLAN BARKER, and WALTER DEWIEL are known as the F.F.F. (Famous Frederick-town Farmers). CATHERINE KRICHBAUM on the way to Crestline had her thirteenth wreck--the terror of 30N drives again. In Mansfield DALE BIGLIN is modeling his favorite turtle-neck sweaters at Richman's. DONALD DUTSCHKE is a bouncer at the Sky-Way. JOANN DEGRAY has recently been named "Home-maker of the year". Believe it or not BILL KOYSCH has become county truant officer--his good friend DIMON SCHAAD assists him. BOB RUHE has finished college and is patiently waiting for Pat to finish too. Meanwhile, he and RALEIGH PEGRAM soup up hot-rods. BILL BAUER is now living in Galion to save wear and tear on his tires.

Incidentally PAT CHRISTINI is the National Popcorn Popper. She's so modest she didn't want to tell you. SHELBY BISE has given up her career as comic strip artist to get married.

We are waiting anxiously for your reply and information about the remainder of the class of "56".

Dear Pat and Shelby,

It doesn't seem possible that it has been ten whole years since we graduated from dear old C.H.S. We are just bursting with news. Since you couldn't make it to the reunion, we thought you would be glad to hear about the classmates who no longer live in Crestline.

CHARLES INMAN is an accountant with the N.Y. Trust Co., WAYNE EMMER lives in a plush penthouse and has just written a best seller, "How To Be Tall And Like It", LARRY PALMER is now appearing at Carnegie Hall, SUZANNE ENOCH has her Parisian dress shop on Fifth Avenue, and FLORENCE MANGRUM is the star singer in the New York production of "Porgy and Bess".

In Chicago WINIFRED SCANLON has a law office with CHARLOTTE BROWN as her head secretary. ALICE SPURGEON is Mistress of Ceremonies onZoo Parade (CBS), BILL HORNING calls square dances on the Midwestern Hayride (WNBK), and BOB GRETER is the champion wrestler on TV (WKNS). His most ardent fan is FREDA PENNINGTON. RALPH SCULLY is climbing fast to stardom since his recent appearance in "Marlon Returns". MERI LEE PAYNTER is still chasing him for his autograph.

MARILYN ARMSTRONG is head nurse at the Cleveland Hospital and KAREN FULTON is an industrial nurse at the United States Steel Industry. ROGER PRY is the "campus cat". Of what campus it was not revealed. DAVID HARTMAN is making a career in the army as "buck private". TOM WEAVER is keeping our country safe with his "know how" with radar.

While shopping in Columbus last week-end we stopped in Lazarus to see GINNY ARCUDI. She is in charge of the shoe department there. By the way BUD SNYDER is still the same roving lover-boy.

We are pleased to hear about TED SAWYER'S recent election to the position of Secretary-General of the U.N. PEGGY LINN is his personal secretary. Incidentally, I should tell you that I am a model at Sak's on Fifth Avenue in New York.

We are sure you will agree after reading this letter that we may consider all our classmates very successful!

Yours truly,
Jackie & Peggy

CLASSES

Seniors

The Seniors of 1956 have had an exceptionally busy year; two projects have meant a great amount of work for everyone--publication of the annual and planning for a class trip. The school's oldest group also held several dances and sold candy to raise money for their treasury. To guide the class in its final year was the lot of Miss Miller and Mr. Hutson. The class chose Bill Horning, president; Catherine Krichbaum, vice-president; Norma Long, secretary; and Emogene Croft, treasurer.

Juniors

The Juniors were hard at work to raise funds for the Reception. Leading this class were Larry Simmermacher, president; Marilyn Horning, vice-president; Jack Harbaugh, secretary; and Pam Eckert, treasurer. Their fund raising activities included selling C.H.S. emblems, school memory booklets, and admissions to the dances that were held after the home athletic games. Faculty advisors were Miss Griebling and Mr. Walrath.

Sophomores

Sophomores, those wise fools, led by president Sharon Sigars, vice-president Jim Mahek, secretary Nancy Linn, and treasurer Judy Harbaugh, were counseled by Miss O'Leary and Mr. Hackman. The focal point of this class' activities was the Sophomore Hop, annually held after the Junior-Senior Reception.

Freshmen

The Freshmen, newcomers to the opportunities of a high school education, had good advice from Mrs. Varga and Mr. Flynn. Officers were: Roger Ruhe, president; Inez Solinger, vice-president; and Carole Yost, secretary-treasurer.

Eighth Grade

A Christmas Party was the highlight of the year for the Eighth Grade. Mrs. Enoch and Mr. Grace helped Robert Fisher, president; Jackie Berger, vice-president; Linda Conn, secretary; and Susie Eckstein, treasurer to manage the class affairs.

Seventh Grade

A very active Seventh Grade elected Teddy Hines president, Sharon Hyler vice-president, Connie McMichael secretary, and Libby Sawyer treasurer; to supervise the year's events--a Christmas party, a Spring party, and the saving of sales tax stamps for the purchase of a record player--was the duty of Mrs. Amos and Mr. Clouse.

The members of the National Honor Society are chosen from the upper fourth of the Junior and Senior classes through careful selections by the high school faculty. A student qualifying for the Society must be fit in scholarship, leadership, service rendered, and character. Five per cent of the class was chosen in the second semester of our Junior year, five per cent in the first semester of our Senior year, and five per cent will be chosen our last semester in school.

The National Honor Society's motto is Excelsior and their flower is the Purple Orchid.

The Annual Staff is composed of 32 hard-working seniors, each of whom has been responsible for some part of the annual. Under the leadership of the editor-in-chief Ted Sawyer, the members of the Annual Staff have labored many hours during the past year. In spite of numerous obstacles, this group has succeeded in its endeavor--to publish an annual. Since there has been no annual for the past two years, many hardships were encountered in starting one again.

The girls' sports are conducted through the Girls' Athletic Association, which was founded in 1933 to foster an interest in athletic activities.

The object of the G.A.A. is to develop good sportsmanship and character, to promote good fellowship, and to cultivate a healthy mind and body by proper living and beneficial exercise.

Any sophomore, junior, or senior girl who is interested and pays dues is eligible for membership. Pins, letters, medallions, and a new award which has been added this year are the awards that may be earned. These awards are given on a point system based on both team and individual participation in sports.

The biggest social event of the year is a formal dance, held near Christmas, and sponsored jointly by the G.A.A. and F.H.A. The event is financed by the sale of Christmas cards.

The officers for the year are president, Frances Griefenstine; vice-president, Catherine Krichbaum; secretary, Winifred Scanlon; and treasurer, Sally Exenkamper. Mrs. Varga is the advisor.

The purpose of the Latin Club is to interest students in learning Latin more easily by teaching them the ways the Romans lived. A monthly meeting is held in which skits, plays songs, and dances are given. During the school year a colorful Roman Banquet is served. The preparations are made during the monthly meetings. The feast is exactly like a Roman feast from grape juice to olives. The freshmen, who serve as slaves, are initiated on this night.

The Ohio State Junior Classical League has a convention each spring to which the eligible members of our Latin Club go. Tenth grade officers are: president, Brenda Guinup; vice-president, Barbara Taylor; secretary-treasurer, Irene Goodall. The ninth grade club elected Thomas Horning, president; Eldon Bauer, vice-president; and Jackie Sherer, secretary-treasurer. Miss Faye Griebling serves as advisor to both groups.

During the 1955 football season the Crestline Bulldogs enjoyed only a fair season. They won 4 and lost 5, but many of their defeats were by close scores. In his first year as head coach, Les Grace, aided by assistants Keith Evans, Bob Clouse, and Earle Fletcher, led Crestline to fourth place in the strong Mohican League. The captain was Bob Ruhe and the co-captain Bill Horning. This year's squad was limited to the upper three grades because of a new rule preventing Freshmen from playing in varsity competition.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

FIRST ROW: Joe Gottfried, Bill Brown, Kenny Scott, John Exenkamper, Don Clutter, Bill Horning, Larry Simmermacher, Charles Inman.
SECOND ROW: Ass't Coach Keith Evans, Mgr. Junior Brown, Ronnie Ball, John Berger, Bill Wood, Jack Harbaugh, Mgrs. David Groh and John DePietro, and Head Coach Les Grace.

With only three letterman returning this year, of which only one was over six feet tall, this was definitely a building year for Crestline. The future looks brighter, however, since eleven varsity members should be returning next year.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

FIRST ROW: Gary Legg, Ronnie Barker, Nicki Pry, Bob Fisher, John Croft.
SECOND ROW: Coach Evans, Butch Paynter, Eugene Bise, Denny Tuttle, Phil Thornsberry, Coach Grace.

Under the direction of Lester Grace and Keith Evans, the Reserve Team has learned much about basketball. The players have met their opponents fairly and squarely. Because of a new rule the team is made up of Freshmen. They have not won many games, but have gained valuable experience.

SECOND ROW: Bud Snyder, Denny Flaherty, Don Clutter, Jack Harbaugh, Ronnie Baker, Frank Mattox, Don Schill, Bill Brown, Coach Bob Clouse.

Crestline High School completed its third year of baseball in 1955. Their first year under the supervision of Coach Clouse.

The team had an above average record of 11 victories and 5 defeats. Last year also marked the first year Crestline entered a baseball tournament. The Exempted School Tournament was played at Clyde, Ohio. The team went all the way to the finals only to be beaten by Rossford.

THIRD ROW: Jim Brown, Melvin Eckert, Jim Moleno, Robert Beck, John Fawcett, Bob Fisher, Deroice Dent, James Ingram.

The Junior High football team was victorious in all of their seven games. They scored 145 points to their opponents' 31 points. The best game was in defeating Shelby 7-6.
